Best Lawyers in America Recognizes 15 HLB Attorneys; One Attorney Named "Lawyer of the Year"

News 08.20.20

Health law firm Hooper, Lundy & Bookman is pleased to announce that 15 of its attorneys have been recognized for their health law expertise in the 2021 Edition of Best Lawyers in America.

Additionally, Paul Smith was named "Lawyer of the Year" for his work in the field of Health Care Law. This award recognizes the attorneys who receive the highest overall peer feedback in their practice area and geographic region.

According to Best Lawyers, recognition of these accomplishments is based on a peer-review survey process of legal professionals who gauge the specialized abilities of their colleagues within the same geographical and legal practice area.
