Events

11.18.21

Mandatory electronic filing and a host of other changes to the rules for Provider Reimbursement Review Board (“PRRB”) appeals take effect on November 1, 2021. We welcome you to join us on November 18, 2021 at 11AM PST / 2 PM EST for a webinar where we will unpack these rule changes and offer practice pointers for navigating them in filing and managing your PRRB appeals. This webinar will cover recent changes in filing requirements and appeal formation, with a particular focus on new information required upon filing of an appeal and new considerations for commonly owned providers and structuring of group appeals. We also will cover significant procedural changes, including new procedures for substantive claim challenges and expedited judicial review requests.
