Events

11.18.20

No matter the outcome, the 2020 Election will have a significant impact on health care in our country. From dealing with the current COVID-19 pandemic to the future of Medicare, Medicaid, and the Affordable Care Act – everything is on the table.

During this webinar, HLB's Government Relations and Public Policy Team will shared the most up-to-date outcomes of the election, and the impact it will have on the makeup of the 117th Congress and Administration as it relates to health care policy, while focusing on key topics, such as COVID-19 assistance, drug costs, surprise billing, insurance coverage and more.

Hear from our government relations experts on what may happen in the remaining lame duck session this year and what to expect in 2021 and beyond.
