Health law firm Hooper, Lundy & Bookman is pleased to announce that 19 lawyers across five offices have been recognized for their health law expertise in the 2022 edition of the Best Lawyers in America, of which four attorneys received first-time rankings.

Attorney Mark Johnson was named Health Care “Lawyer of the Year,” a distinct honor that recognizes individual attorneys with the highest overall peer-feedback in their specific practice area and geographic region. Also, two attorneys were recognized as “Ones to Watch,” a new initiative launched by Best Lawyers that recognizes attorneys early in their careers for their outstanding professional excellence in private practice.

Since 1981, Best Lawyers has produced the most reliable, unbiased source for legal referrals. Recognition of these accomplishments is based on a peer-review survey process of legal professionals who gauge the specialized abilities of their colleagues within the same geographical and legal practice area.
