Hooper, Lundy & Bookman is now an affiliate of the Robert J. Waters Center for Telehealth and e-Health Law ("CTeL") after Jeremy Sherer, co-chair of HLB's Digital Health Task Force, was recently named a member of the CTeL Legal Resource Team. Legal Resource Team members are experienced telehealth counselors who advise CTeL's staff, its Board of Directors, and its members regarding issues of telehealth law.

Founded in 1995, CTeL is a leading national organization on legal and regulatory issues impacting the advancement of telehealth.
