06.02.22

Hooper, Lundy & Bookman is pleased to announce that the firm has again been recognized in the 2022 edition of leading legal industry ranking publication Chambers USA among the best health care firms in the United States with top-rated lawyers nationally and in California, Massachusetts and Washington, D.C. Chambers USA rankings are based on extensive research, including interviews with clients and members of the legal community.

The rankings distinguish the firm as one of the top two firms in California and among the top firms nationally. The firm has more attorneys recognized by Chambers in California than any other law firm. Eleven lawyers are ranked throughout the United States, including a new ranking for partners Katrina Pagonis, Amy Joseph, and Jeremy Sherer.

Chambers describes the firm as an "outstanding healthcare boutique, with significant capability acting for both providers and suppliers across a range of complex and cutting-edge matters."

Clients describe the firm as having "an excellent reputation as a healthcare reimbursement boutique" that is "very responsive, proactive and communicate when things change in the market." One client remarked, "This is the best team I've worked with."

Another client noted, "They have consistently done stellar work on very sophisticated and complex matters with quick turnaround times."
