

Hooper, Lundy & Bookman Recognized as a Top Health Law Firm by Chambers

News

05.03.18

Hooper, Lundy & Bookman is pleased to announce that Chambers and Partners has one again recognized the firm as one of the top health law firms in the country.

Recognized as a top health law firm nationally, Chambers characterized the firm as “noted for its particular strength in Medicare and Medicaid reimbursement, large-scale hospital acquisitions and False Claims Act actions.” Bob Lundy, was recognized as a transactional Eminent Practitioner; and Pat Hooper and Lloyd Bookman, were identified as notable Regulatory & Litigation Practitioners.

The firm was also recognized as a notable firm in Washington, D.C., with Robert Roth identified as a Notable Practitioner.

As one of only 2 top-tier California firms, Chambers noted that the firm is an “outstanding healthcare boutique, with significant capability acting for both providers and suppliers across a range of complex and cutting-edge matters.” The following attorneys received specific recognition: Steve Lipton (recognized as a Senior Statesman), Bob Lundy (recognized as an Eminent Practitioner), Lloyd Bookman, Pat Hooper, and Charles Oppenheim.

RELATED CAPABILITIES

Business Transactions

False Claims Act

Medicare, Medicaid, Other Governmental Reimbursement and Payment

PROFESSIONAL

LLOYD A. BOOKMAN
Founding Partner
Los Angeles

PATRIC HOOPER
Founding Partner
Los Angeles

ROBERT W. LUNDY, JR.
Founding Partner
Los Angeles

CHARLES B. OPPENHEIM
Partner
Los Angeles
San Francisco

ROBERT L. ROTH
Partner
Washington, D.C.