Hooper, Lundy & Bookman is proud to once again be recognized in Chambers USA 2025 as one of the nation's premier health care law firms, with top-tier rankings and leading attorneys recognized across the United States. The firm earned rankings nationally and in California, Massachusetts, and, new this year, Washington, D.C.

Ranked among "The Elite" for national health care law, HLB continues to be distinguished for its deep industry knowledge, client commitment, and legal excellence. This year, the firm again had more attorneys recognized by Chambers in California than any other law firm. Ten lawyers are ranked throughout the United States.

Chambers USA, a leading legal publication, conducts rigorous research and interviews with clients and peers to identify top law firms and practitioners. Chambers describes HLB as "a dedicated healthcare firm offering litigation, transactional and regulatory expertise to its extensive provider and supplier client base across the country."

Clients interviewed by Chambers shared:

"Hooper Lundy & Bookman offers professionalism, quality and ethics. Its attorneys have deep subject matter expertise in healthcare and high intellectual horsepower."

"The team clearly have a grasp on process and technical arguments. They are very responsive and thorough and very much understand the industry."
