HLB Welcomes Associate Caitlin Callahan

News 02.23.26

We are pleased to welcome Caitlin Callahan as an Associate in the firm's Washington, D.C. office.

Caitlin brings valuable experience in litigation and regulatory matters, having served at the U.S. Food and Drug Administration and with the U.S. Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor & Pensions. Her background across government and enforcement matters enhances the firm's ability to guide clients through complex regulatory, compliance, and litigation challenges in the evolving health care landscape. We are excited to have Caitlin join our team and look forward to the contributions she will make to our clients and firm.
