News 11.02.26

On October 30, HLB's Government Relations & Public Policy team welcomed members of the Women in Government Relations (WGR) Health & Social Policies Task Force to our Washington, D.C. office for their monthly meeting.

The Task Force brings together government relations professionals working across health care and social policy to share insights, discuss legislative and regulatory developments, and build connections across the policy community.

We're proud to support WGR's mission of advancing women in the government relations profession and grateful to everyone who joined us. Thank you to the Task Force leadership for the opportunity to host!
