Enrique makes dollars and cents make perfect sense with his analytical skills and attention to detail. A CPA and talented accounting professional with substantial legal industry experience, Enrique appreciates the needs and priorities of the firm's management and attorneys when it comes to painting a holistic financial picture. His confidence, technical accounting prowess, and agile, adaptable communication style, forged during his significant time working overseas, all contribute to his effectiveness as controller.

At HLB, Enrique wears many hats under the firm's accounting functions, from managing accounts payable and receivable to complex strategic financial analysis and forecasting. Resilient and project-driven, he has spearheaded the implementation of technologies and systems that have brought greater efficiency and practicality to the accounting department and fostered close and productive working relationships at all levels of the firm.
