2019, Colorado
2008, Illinois

Katherine (Katie) Markowski Dru is a partner in the litigation department and medical staff practice group of Hooper, Lundy & Bookman. Ms. Dru's practice comprises a wide range of matters on behalf of hospitals, medical staffs, physicians, and other health care providers, with an emphasis on managed care litigation and all aspects of medical staff law. Ms. Dru has significant experience in all aspects of arbitration and litigation, and has first and second-chaired jury trials, arbitrations, peer review hearings, and administrative hearings.

Ms. Dru's extensive managed care experience includes arbitration and litigation alleging unfair business practices, breach of contract, fraud, false claims act violations, and ERISA violations. In 2017, Ms. Dru co-chaired a jury trial against Anthem Blue Cross concerning out-of-network reimbursement that resulted in the second-largest verdict in the state for the relevant practice area that year.

Ms. Dru's medical staff practice includes peer review/Medical Board hearings; investigations into physician behavior; managing on-site responses to Statements of Deficiencies identified by CMS surveyors; drafting policies and advising on supervision requirements for allied health professionals; and advising hospitals on various issues relating to the use of medical residents and students, including drafting policies and conducting disciplinary hearings.

Ms. Dru received a Bachelor of Arts degree, magna cum laude with distinction in French Studies and International Studies, from Colby College. She received her J.D. from The University of Chicago Law School, where she was a member of the University of Chicago Law Review, the Mandel Legal Aid Clinic's Irwin Askow Housing Initiative, and the Willem C. Vis International Arbitration Moot Court team.

Katherine M. Dru

Ms. Dru is firmly committed to pro bono service. She has met with success in a vast range of pro bono matters, including a criminal appeal before the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals, numerous appeals of denials of unemployment insurance benefits before the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board, and an appeal of a denial of dental benefits for a foster child to the California Department of Social Services.

Ms. Dru previously was an associate in the Chicago offices of Foley & Lardner, LLP and Hogan Lovells US, LLP.

Ms. Dru is fluent in written and spoken French.

BAR ADMISSIONS

1999, California

Upon graduation from law school, Jodi P. Berlin joined Hooper, Lundy & Bookman where she practices in the regulatory/reimbursement department. Ms. Berlin's practice focuses primarily on assisting healthcare providers, including hospitals, laboratories, home health agencies, hospices, skilled nursing facilities, physicians and allied health professionals. Ms. Berlin advises her clients on compliance issues, Medicare and Medicaid reimbursement, licensing and certification issues, medical staff, accreditation issues, medical board, consent issues and other regulatory and health law-related matters.

Ms. Berlin regularly assesses billing and scope of practice issues; drafts compliance policies and procedures; reviews and revises job descriptions to ensure compliance with federal and state regulations; drafts corrective action plans and voluntary disclosures to government agencies; defends denials of accreditation and federal and state citations and/or terminations from the Medicare and Medicaid program; and defends professional board accusations. Ms. Berlin has also assisted numerous providers with responding to audits during the Recovery Audit Contractor demonstration project and handled countless appeals before Administrative Law Judges at the Office of Medicare Hearings and Appeals.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Berlin received her R.N. diploma in 1978 from Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, School of Nursing in Boston, Massachusetts. As a registered nurse, Ms. Berlin specialized in the fields of adult and neonatal intensive care, coronary care, and bone marrow transplants. She subsequently graduated magna cum laude from the University of California at Los Angeles in 1994, where she received her B.A. in Political Science. Ms. Berlin received her J.D. from Whittier Law School in 1999, and was admitted to the California Bar in December of that year. She also served as a law clerk to the Honorable Lawrence Crispo, Judge of the Superior Court for the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, M.P.H., 2005
Georgetown University Law Center, J.D., 2005
Yale Law School, L.L.M.,

Katrina Pagonis is co-chair of the firm's regulatory department and a nationally recognized expert on implementation of the Affordable Care Act's market reforms, including the federal regulation of government-sponsored and private managed care plans and the establishment and operation of Health Insurance Exchanges ("Marketplaces") like Covered California. Ms. Pagonis regularly advises clients on the impact of health care reform, as well as emerging health care reform proposals (from repeal-and-replace to single payer) at the state and national levels. She also provides regulatory and strategic advice to health care providers concerning managed care issues more generally, including out-of-network reimbursement, network configuration (narrow and tiered networks), reference pricing and cost-sharing limits, managed care contracting, and enrollment assistance activities.

In addition, Ms. Pagonis regularly assists health care providers—including hospitals, long-term care providers, suppliers, pharmacies, hospices, physicians and medical groups—with a broad range of regulatory and Medicare/Medicaid reimbursement matters. She is an expert in site-neutrality initiatives for hospital outpatient services, meaningful use of electronic health records, health care technology, clinical trial agreements, antitrust, and internal investigations. Ms. Pagonis represents providers in government investigations and False Claims Act cases and assists providers that have credible information regarding potential overpayments with the investigation, identification, reporting, and returning of overpayments. Ms. Pagonis is a former judicial law clerk of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and the U.S. District Court for the District of Nevada. Until 2012, she was a full-time professor of health law at Hamline University School of Law in St. Paul, Minnesota.
