

20th Annual Hospital & Health Law Conference 2019

Advanced issues in health care—hot topics and trends

Health care as an industry and legal specialty moves incredibly fast. It is challenging for any practitioner to stay on top of the leading issues and remain current in the field. This year's Hospital & Health Law Conference addresses the most important hot topics and trends in health care, offering a lawyer's perspective on the legal and business issues applicable to a broad spectrum of the industry. Hear the latest on the most important developments affecting hospitals and health systems, managed care payors and providers doing business with them, conflicts of interest and research compliance, physicians and physician organizations, and health care fraud and abuse.

This cutting-edge Conference addresses these issues from a sophisticated legal perspective. What do healthcare lawyers need to know in order to skillfully and strategically advise clients as they confront these challenges on the horizon? With many important perspectives to be heard, the Conference brings together diverse viewpoints and experiences to give you both breadth and depth. Lawyers who help their clients respond to a market in flux, exposing both risks and opportunities, are providing a critical service. This Conference efficiently distills and addresses key issues, and provides you with essential insight on lawyering in this ever-evolving practice area.
